After taking into account their submissions and after viewing the films Stewards established that after second placegetter was slow to begin Jockey rode his mount along and after being crossed near the 800 metres it commenced to overtake and hung out badly from that point. When Stewards were comfortably satisfied that gelding was clear to cross runners to its inside and that second placegetter hung badly as result of its own racing manners, Stewards dismissed the objection.

Jockey said that, although she was aware that she had the favourite to her inside, her mount was already under pressure at that point and was inclined to lay out under riding, resulting in her shifting wider on the track. Jockey was advised to ride her mounts in a competitive manner at all times and not leave herself open to query.
