After viewing the footage, it was established that the gelding lowered its head as the start was affected and as a result lost significant ground. In the circumstances stewards were satisfied that, if not for the horses own actions, MCCOVEY COVE had been afforded a fair start and correct weight was given on the semaphored numbers.

Stewards after speaking with trainer L Kelly Snr confirmed that he wanted the mare ridden quietly. Jockey B El-Issa explained that approaching the 1400m he raced tightly between runners and at that point had Jockey S Galloway to his outside and was obliged to settle in a rearward position on the rails. Jockey B El-Issa further explained that approaching he 700m was disappointed for a run between Outback Gladiator and Lady Snitch which laid in and tightened his run. Jockey B

S. Comments:When questioned in relation to the seemingly improved performance, the stable representative for trainer Mr John Moore, Mr George Moore could offer no tangible explanation for the horses most recent start where it performed disappointingly. He went on to say that prior to this start the stable was satisfied with the horse's form and when prepared to forgive the horse's previous start the stable had expected a forward showing in today's event. He added that the gelding had previously performed well at this track and distance, which he felt was also to the benefit of the gelding in today's event

After viewing the footage, it was established that the gelding lowered its head as the start was affected and as a result lost significant ground. In the circumstances stewards were satisfied that, if not for the horses own actions, MCCOVEY COVE had been afforded a fair start and correct weight was given on the semaphored numbers.
