Cahill advised that from the wide alley he elected to take up a position at the tail of the field, and as the race was not run to suit, this resulted in him being further from the lead than he would have liked. He added that approaching the home turn he elected to shift wider when making his run rather than improving through the field as his instructions were to have an unimpeded run in the home straight. He added that the horse would be better suited from a closer alley and ridden closer to the lead.

S. Comments:Jumped awkwardly, making heavy contact with the barrier partition, losing ground, causing the horse to be positioned in the second half of the field. Held up rounding the home turn and in the straight until approaching the 200m when tightened for room and restrained. Inquiry re performance.
Apprentice L. Tarrant stated after beginning awkwardly, the gelding overraced and was reluctant to settle at the rear of the field, which was further back than anticipated. He added passing the 600m the gelding was travelling comfortably but after being held up near the 200m, only found the line fairly.
