He added that connections were of the view that the horse races best when able to obtain the lead and dictate the race. A post-race veterinary examination the gelding to be sore across the back region. Trainer B. Gill was advised that the horse will require a veterinary clearance prior to racing again.

Commenced to hang out from the 700 metres and then shifted wider on the track rounding the home-turn placing its rider at a disadvantage for the remainder of the race.
