

RGR30218 Certificate III in Racing (Stablehand)

This qualification reflects the role of individuals working as a stablehand in charge of daily operations in a harness or thoroughbred racing stable where they care for racehorses.

The stablehand works to the delegated instructions of a trainer who has overall responsibility for operations. They work in a stable environment directing and coordinating one or more stablehands or managing operations independently, depending on the size of the stable, and are permitted under the rules of racing to act for the trainer.

They are required to work autonomously, use judgement, interpret information, apply solutions to various problems and take responsibility for operations and outputs.

This qualification is required for industry licensing and registration in some states and territories. Users are advised to check with the relevant Principal Racing Authority for current requirements.

Competencies attained in the units packaged for this qualification will apply to the harness and thoroughbred codes of the industry.

To achieve this qualification, competency must be demonstrated in:

Eighteen (18) units of competency:

- Twelve (12) core units plus
- Six (6) elective units.

You will be guided in your unit selection through consultation with your course advisor - this is a Nationally recognised qualification
